

KOORIE WOMEN MEAN BUSINESS

presents the

VICTORIAN ABORIGINAL WOMEN'S AWARDS 2004

“To acknowledge and celebrate the positive contribution and dedication of women to the Aboriginal Community life”

Koorie Women Mean Business Incorporated announces The Victorian Aboriginal Women's Awards, which aims to publicly acknowledge the contribution of Victorian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women who have dedicated their time and work to their communities.

The underpinning criteria for nomination to a category will be that the nominee has through their own actions made a positive contribution to enhance the position of Indigenous people. If you know a woman who fits the description or that falls in to any one of the following categories:

- Women in Art/Performing Arts
- Women in Education
- Women in Business
- Women in Health
- Women in Sport
- Women in Community Development Employment Program
- Women in Culture
- Women in Environment
- Young Women's Encouragement Award
- Wattle Award – a posthumous award

We invite you to nominate this extraordinary women in your community you will need to complete a nomination form and mail it to:

Victorian Aboriginal Womens Awards
Koorie Women Mean Business Incorporated
Level 1 388 Bourke Street, Melbourne VIC 3000

For nominations or information on the Victorian Aboriginal Womens

Awards contact Dot May or Narida Power on (03) 9670 3460 or Email:
info@kwmb.org.au

Nominations close on Tuesday 1 June 2004 at 4.00pm.