

Nomination Form

VICTORIAN ABORIGINAL WOMEN'S AWARDS
2004

Terms and Conditions of Nominating

Nominations are treated in the strictest confidence and are judged by a panel of independent people. In particular judges look for evidence of extraordinary achievements, which enhance the position, or perception of the Aboriginal community through various award categories. Directors and staff of KWMB and ATSIC Regional Councilors are not eligible for nomination. To help judges obtain a clear and concise profile of the nominee please print details clearly and identify the category. Yes you can nominate on behalf of someone but please remember they must be present to receive the award on the day of the ceremony.

Please limit your answers to up to 100 words and attach supporting documents.
